IN MEMORIAM

BALDWIN: In memory of my father, Aurelious A. Baldwin, who passed away April 12, 1947. A precious one from us has gone to rest.

A voice I loved is still.
A place is vacant in my home
Which never can be filled,
Thoughts of you come drifting back in my dreams to stay.
To know that you are resting when twilight shades each day.
Sadly Missed by Daughter.

In sad but loving memory of our dear husband and father, William Edward Warriner, who departed this life one year ago April 17, 1962.

"Today we turn back the pages
in the book of memories:
And the face of our wonderful husband and father.
Again in our thoughts we see,
No fortune or fame can ever compare
So precious and wonderful as your dear Husband and Father
The rolling stream of life rolls on, but still the vacant chair
Recalls the love, the voice, the smile of the one who can sat there.
The depth of sorrow we cannot tell of the loss of one, we loved so well.
And while he sleeps a peaceful sleep,
His memory we shall always keep.
What a beautiful memory he left behind.
His wife, Mrs. Annie Warriner
Daughters, Mrs. Lindy L. Garrette, Mrs. Mary L. Smith, Mrs. Carrie E. Gibson. 4-18-1p

Lt. Thomas Makes Hole-In-One

By CALVIN ROBINSON

It seems quite a coincidence, that in last week's issue I related how near I came to making a "hole in one" in golf long ago, and then a few days later our popular local State Police Lieutenant L. E. Thomas actually made a "hole in one" on the local course. In major tournaments, such as The Masters, a fabulous prize of, say up to $10,-000, is offered for a hole in one. However, their are precious few takers. (I dreamed the other night that I played the first five holes in five under par (birdies) and then got a hole in one on number six. I fainted and they had to carry me home!)

"Can" To "Can't"

Pipe line workers, due soon to begin laying pipe in Appomattox County, work from "can" to "can't", a spokesman said. They begin as early as 5 a.m. when they "can" just see light to 9 p.m. or later when they "can't" see light any more. Seven days a week — 80 hours a day is routine, as one gang of workers races to keep ahead of the group just behind them.
